

First Cooks for Alberta Fire Base Camps

Do you take pride in your work? Do you thrive under pressure? Do you want to help support the courageous men and women fighting fires in Alberta by giving them a home away from home? Redrock Camps is looking for extraordinary First Cooks that can make this happen by providing our hardworking firefighters with delicious fresh cooked meals.

If you have:

- Experience working in camp
- A valid Food Safe certificate
- A desire to be part of a hard-working team we want to hear from you!

As a First Cook you will:

- Prepare delicious meals for the firefighters returning to camp
- Be the team leader, organizer, motivator and coach
- Stay cool under pressure and take pride in your work
- Complete the daily, weekly paperwork including inventory and food ordering
- Be prepared to do what it takes from cooking to cleaning and yes even dishes when needed
- Manage the kitchen staff

To be successful, you need to:

- Be a team player
- Take pride in your work
- Have a positive attitude
- Be organized
- Proficient in managing your time
- Be able to multi-task
- You must be ready to go out to camp on very short notice
- Have a current Food Safe certificate
- Previous camp cooking experience

The fine print:

This job is seasonal for the Fire Base Camps during fire season across Alberta. Exact finish dates will be determined by our client's needs and may be last minute due to the highly unpredictable nature of this work.

At Redrock, our success is built on the foundations of our core values: teamwork, loyalty, communication and consistency. We are in the business of taking care of people while they work in isolated locations. We concentrate on the welfare of both our clients and employees by designing our operations to meet the needs of people, regardless of location.
