

General Helpers Needed for Alberta Fire Base Camps

Do you take pride in your work? Are you high-energy and a bit of a neat freak? Do you want to help support the courageous men and women fighting fires in Alberta by giving them a home away from home? Redrock Camps is looking for hard working General Helpers to join their team and help provide our hardworking firefighters with a clean, comfortable living space.

As General Helper, you will be responsible for cleaning and maintaining kitchen and dining areas, bathrooms, common areas, sleeping quarters, operational outhouses, and any additional buildings on the fire base. You will be washing all dishes, complying with all safety regulations in camp, and following your team leader through all given tasks.

What we need from YOU:

- To be certified in Food-Safe Handling
- To be ready to go out to camp on very short notice
- To have previous Fire Camp experience
- You must be go-getter with a can-do attitude
- To have a positive attitude
- To be organized
- Proficient in managing your time
- Be able to multi-task
- Be a Team Player! Room needs cleaning? You are there. Cooks need help? You are there

The fine print:

This job is seasonal for the Fire Base Camps during fire season across Alberta. Exact finish dates will be determined by our client's needs and may be last minute due to the highly unpredictable nature of this work.

At Redrock, our success is built on the foundations of our core values: teamwork, loyalty, communication and consistency. We are in the business of taking care of people while they work in isolated locations. We concentrate on the welfare of both our clients and employees by designing our operations to meet the needs of people, regardless of location.
